

Moses' Mother

Exodus 1:15-2:10

Fred R. Leuck

Historical Introduction:

A. The Birth of Moses

1. The wicked edict of Pharaoh
2. The secret revolt of the mid-wives
3. Plan C- brutal infanticide
4. Amram and Jochebed's Faith in God

B. Lesson on Faith

1. Faith fears God more than man
2. Faith does more than pray; faith acts
3. Women of faith play the dominant role in this story

Synopsis: The Biblical account of Moses' conception and birth is one of brave faith in God because Pharaoh's edict demanded that all Hebrew males born should be killed. This the Hebrew midwives refused to do. When Moses was born his mother hid him among the reeds of the Nile. He was discovered, rescued and raised by none other than Pharaoh's own daughter. God honors obedience to HIS commands.